

Phone Privileges

- Inmates housed in the cell sections of WCDF have access to phones in designated areas and are granted use of them.
- Telephone calls from WCDF's business phones will only be accepted to call a bondsman or an attorney with reasonable amount of time.
- Inmates may give friends and family the number for Encartele (866-476-6723) to set up and pay for accounts to call.

PHONE PRIVILEGE LIMITATIONS:

Victim/ Witness tampering by use of the phone will not be tolerated.

- Telephone harassment by calling a person continually that does not wish to talk to you will not be tolerated.
- Use of the phones for obscene or threatening purposes will result in the loss of phone privileges.
- Any complaint from outside sources will result in the loss of phone privileges.
- All phone calls are to be collect, except for the phone calls made during the booking process to a local number. Long distance calls made during the booking process will be collect.
- The inmate phones will not receive incoming calls. The only messages from the outside that will be passed on to the inmates are for a family member being hospitalized and/or death, and then only after confirmation of this information.
- The use of WCDF phone for 3-way calling will not be tolerated.
- Violations of the above will result in the loss of phone privileges, and possible criminal prosecution as prescribed by state and federal laws.

NOTE: A record is made of all numbers called and is available to the Webster County Sheriff's Office.

All phone calls may be monitored and recorded.

PHONE PRIVILEGES FOR DISCIPLINARY UNITS:

- Inmates who are segregated as a result of rule violations will be allowed to place calls during their breaks only. All calls will be made on the inmate telephones, unless calling a bondsman or an attorney.